Why The Glasses?

It is difficult to realize, but not so far back, shell rimmed glasses, cumbersome and conspicuous as they are, were popular. The effect of many a smart street ensemble and evening gown was ruined before glasses were appreciated as a part of dress.

Then Almer Coe & Company, introduced new rimless styles-graceful unobtrusive glasses, with white gold mountings. And now the shell rims are passé. Today they are seldom worn, except for sportswear or for reading at home.

To the few, who may have clung to them because too accustomed to their wear to change, it is suggested that you try one of the new Almer Coe rimless models-we promise you will make an immediate gratifying selection.

For those who require rims, a wide selection of finely designed white gold rimmed frames are available.

TIERE, Gentlemen, is a store of repose I I and seclusion. When a busy man steps into A. Starr Best, he immediately relaxes—the atmosphere is conducive to it.

The second floor is set aside for Men's Clothing. The carpet is thick and soft; it invites a man to become tranquil. The motif in furnishing is English.

The effect is an informal club-like interior. Here is a sideboard, that might have done yeoman service in a rustic inn . . . the pewter plates upon its shelves are reminiscent of days less hurried than these. And if a man be anything of a bibliophile, there are some rare books in the richest of bindings . . . French and English classics.

On the first floor are furnishings. The finest of accessories from all over the world. Shirts from France; ties from Austria; socks from Scotland, and America's most skillful handiwork in all items. In addition, A. Starr Best show the oddest of wares for a man's den, library, office and study. Humidors and desk sets; book ends and pipe racks. Each one characterized by a quaintness indicative of rare originality in its fashioning.

You'll like this men's store. It's purpose is not to hurry a man through his purchase, but to make his shopping hours as interesting and refreshing as those he spends at his club.

white and sound

SLIP your tongue across your teeth. Feel that viscous, slippery coating. That is film. According to high dental authority, film is the chief source of decay and an important factor in pyorrhea. It is the cause, too, of dull teeth and those believed to be naturally discolored. To best remove it in the light of modern science a special dentifrice called Pepsodent is urged.

Film - how it destroys

Film is the great enemy of teeth and gumsa chief cause, according to world's dental authorities, of most tooth and gum disorders. Film absorbs the stains from food and smoking and gives that cloudy look. It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays.

Film hardens into tartar. Germs by the millions breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. To remove film use the special film-removing dentifrice called Pepsodent. It acts to curdle film and easily remove it in gentle safety

Don't expect the same results from oldtime dentifrices. See for once and all how white teeth really are. Get Pepsodent at any drug counter, or write for free 10-day supply to The Pepsodent Co., 1104 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

THE CONTROL OF OIL PRODUCTION.

The announcement that the oil companies owning wells in the western hemisphere are uniting on a program of conservation will cause a good deal of eye rubbing. It is only a little more than twenty-two years since the government filed its suit for the dissolution of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, and less than eighteen years since the Supreme court affirmed the judgment in favor of the government. Now the oil companies are joining, with the tacit approval of the federal government, to limit production not only in the Inited States but in Mexico, Colombia and

Not only the dismembered units of the old Standard Oil alliance have combined to limit production of petroleum; since 1906 many new producing companies have come into being, and these, too, have been drawn into the agreement.

A generation ago, in all probability, the forces of the government would have been mobilized to prevent the control of production as an attack upon freedom of trade. Today the government is cooperating with the oil companies. President Hoover has announced that under his administrano government oil lands will be leased and, further, that licenses already issued to prospect for oil will be canceled wherever it can be shown that the licensee has not lived up to the condi-

For one thing, the echnological advances of the last twenty years have left anly the fewest commodities for which there are no adequate substitutes available at only slightly higher prices. If a combination controlling a commodity attempts to bleed the public which must buy it, by raising prices beyond reasonable levels, the probability is that a substitute commodity will seize the markets. If such a commodity is not alresdy known, its discovery can out of action temporarily but cause relatively few night now I expect to hear some heavy say to the be predicted with something amounting to cercombinations may be in the public interest. There has been no popular outcry against the corporate consolidations which have been so marked a feature of the industrial history of recent years, because these consolidations are believed to make for operating economies. Opinion generally ap-plauded the President's oil conservation program, and sees in the proposed control of petroleum production in the western hemisphere a practical method of assuring a supply of cheap petroleum to the future. Uncontrolled development of existing and new oil fields, on the other hand, is recog nized as a squandering of an important element in the nation's wealth. The law has yielded to necessity and common sense.

SUGGESTION FOR COMPOSERS.

The other night M. Honegger of France co ducted our orchestra in a program of his own compositions. M. Honegger has a flair for the primitive. There was one number which had to do with the scalping of certain Iroquois who no doubt deserved all they got at the hands of the Hurons, though M. Honegger seemed to think not, and there was that symphonic representation of

If we have made progress in the art of scalping in this country, it is as nothing to our progress in the art of football. Considering the paucity of his subject, M. Honegger did pretty well by rugby; the game has about as much emotional content and about as much interest to the ear as well contested track meet, and no more. It is mazing that composers in this country have not tried to set down an intercollegiate football game. It would be good for a dozen rugbys.

It begins quietly. The field and the grandstand empty under a mellow autumn sun. The faint whistling of the peanut roaster and the hot dog contraption. Growing animation as the ushers take their positions and the crowd begins to eather. Now the bands, and a chance to high light the youthful pathos of college anthems. They play separately now but later on they will he playing their rival tunes at once, which alone should tempt the composer with a flair for counterpoint. Jerky ballet music for the cheeraders. Enormous noise as the teams trot in Gradually it takes form and magnifies the cheer leaders' ballet a thousand times. The noise sub sides as the teams line up for the kick-off. The seanut roaster can be heard again distinctly, but the emotional intensity is heightened. A rushing und in the strings and the round plunk of the drum kicking off ends the first movement.

selves. The prim ladies who promenade during the intermission won't know what it's all about but what do they know about the duet in Tristan or Mr. Strauss' epic hero? The idea is free.

CHEATING THE YANKEES.

Directors of the General Electric Company, Ltd., of England, recently proposed to sell 1,600,000 new shares of capital stock to their British shareholders. The suggested price of the new shares was one pound sterling, which, compared with the $14 market value of the shares outstanding, is a handsome bonus. The British sharehoners promptly voted to accept the directors' proposal.

In 1928 the directors of the British concern passed a resolution depriving the American stockholders of the voting privilege. More than 1,500,-000 shares of the 2,300,000 shares of the company are now held by American capital. Officials of the American house engaged in distributing the stock in this country said that most of the 1,600,000 American shares were owned at the time of the confiscation of American voting rights,

In disfranchising the American stockholders the British owners became trustees for American capital invested in the company. Having secured this exclusive control the trustees have now cut themselves a rich melon and have cut the American stockholders out of participation in the profits. In announcing the directors' action Sir Hugo Hirst, chairman of the board, said that he hoped the General Electric Company, Ltd., had initiated a new policy which would be followed by other British companies.

After some lively correspondence with the American stockholders through the American Stockholders' Protective association, the directors wave ordered the issuance of the new stock delayed. But Sir Hugo said that the company is determined to carry through its policy.

In depriving the American shareholders of voting rights the company justified itself by the patriotic claim that British ownership was being acquired for a British industry. If this had been established as a condition of ownership of stock by American capital criticism of the management might be tempered. But what the directors did was to confiscate an important asset of the stock which the American owners paid for when they made their purchases. And American capital did not elbow its way into the company; it was solicited by high pressure salesmanship.

Whatever sympathy may be extended the com pany in its earlier coup to preserve British control is completely withdrawn by its confiscation of American dollars instead of merely American votes. This buccaneering procedure has destroyed confidence in the honesty of British industry. Capital may be attracted to an unproductive enterprise, honestly conducted, with the assurance that when it is brought out of the red there will be My Dear, I Cudda Died!

Dr. Harold Florian Clark, professor of education in Teachers' college, Columbia university, was asthe contrary, he believes, "it can even have an opposite effect. LK-BORNE epidemics seem in a fair way to become tradition, especially in the cities. In towns there is still some danger. Since country people rarely use common milk supplies they have few milk-borre epidemics which extend beyond the limits of one family or one farm. In 1926 the U. S. Public Health service got reports on 69 milk caused epidemics. These resulted in 3,363 cases and 95 deaths. There were 1.189 cases of typhoid, 19 of paratyphoid, 1,518 of septic sore throat, 271 of scarlet fever and 24 of diphtheria. By contrast, in 1927, they found records of only 36 epidemic causing 952 cases and 41 deaths. The distribution was 23 epidemics of mik-borne typhoid with 421 cases and 35 deaths; 2 epidemics of paratyphoid with 53 cases; 5 of scarlet fever with 398 cases and 5 deaths; 2 epidemics of diphtheria with 15 cases. The prevalence of milk-borne contagion in 1926 was much less than was that of ten to twenty years ago.

Mr. Howard R. Estes reported on the following milk-borne epidemics to the 1928 meeting of the International Association of Dairy and Milk Inspectors. In Minnesota there were a number of cases of typhoid fever, one in each of several towns, but all becoming sick on the same day. Investigation showed that the disease was due to eating one batch of cream cheese made from a certain shipment of cream to a cheese factory. In Missouri there was an outbreak of typhoid involving the three families who used milk from a one cow dairy. In San Francisco, there was a small outbreak of typhoid due to a capper who worked in a pasteurizing plant. Three references are made to epideniics of milk-borne infantile paralysis. Only one of the reports appeared in 1927. From Connecticut came reports of two epidemics of scarlet fever caused by milk drawn from cows with infected

The great 1926 epidemic of septic sore throat is ascribed to drinking milk from cows with infected udders. This evidence that scarlet fever and septic sore throat can be caused by milk from infected udders is contrary to the general opinion on the subject. The usual teaching is that infected people infect the milk and it spreads the contagion. From California there was one report of epidemics of typhoid due to eating ice cream. From Michigan there was snow. Take long hikes.

MILK DISEASES DYING OFF. a report of one epidemic of typhoid traced to cheese, and one to ice cream From Connecticut, 2 ice cream epi demics of typhoid and from Wisconsin there was a report of an epidemic of paratyphold due to ice cream. There were reports of epidemics of undulant fever due to milk from Indiana, Iowa and Oregon. Pasteurization was used to stop the spread of these undulant fever epidemics.

Dr. Estes' committee recommended the llowing methods of controlling mikborne contagion:

2. Sale in public eating places of no ilk except that from bottles.

3. Supplying no raw milk to schools. 5. Proper handling of milk. 6. Search for carriers among mill handlers. 7. Educating people as to the advantages of pasteurized milk. 8. Reporting of epidemics to health

How do chicago landlords AND RENTAL AGENTS ADVERTISE?

In 1928, they gave the Tribune 81% more apartmentto-rent advertising than all the other Chicago papers combined!

TN 1928 Chicagoans who had apartments to rent gave the Tribune over 64% of all their advertising, 81% more than they gave to all the other Chicago newspapers combined—nearly twice as much.

They knew that the Tribune would reach almost every family in metropolitan Chicago which was a probable tenant for their apartments. They knew, further, that almost everyone looking for an apartment in Chicago or the suburbs turned first to the Tribune because of the completeness of its "To Rent" columns. They knew that the Tribune could rent for them with greater certainty than any other newspaper!

What was true for them is true for you. The Tribune's Want Ad section is the most efficient means of renting your apartment in the city. When you use it. you need expend no other effort toward renting. Daily and Sunday, the Tribune can do the job alone! Phone that smoking takes away

GIRLS! Don't worry any more about smoke-stained teeth or tobacco-tainted breath.

You can smoke and still be lovely if you'll just use Pebeco twice a day.

This thorough cleansing tooth paste keeps teeth ree from discoloration-protects delicate membranes of the mouth and throat from tobacco's parching fumes.

But why Pebeco? Why won't any dentifrice do? Because Pebeco is the only tooth paste that keeps your mouth moist and fresh-clean tasting all day long.

Pebeco contains a special ingredient that gently stimulates a normal flow of alkaline saliva. At its sharp, cool taste your mouth feels invigorated

Smoking stains are washed away. Your throat and mouth become deliciously fragrant and clean -your teeth white and gleaming.

Give Pebeco a month's trial. See how you grow to depend upon it.

Made by Pebeco, Inc., a division of Lehn & Fink Products Company. Sole distributors, Lehn & Fink, Inc., Bloomfield, N. J. Distributed in Canada by Lehn & Fink

PIPEFUL AFTER PIPEFUL! Smoke all you like, men, your mouth won't go sour or dry. Pebeco's salty tang keeps mouth fluids flowing normally-washes away tobacco's "fuzzy" after-taste.

"Teeth White in Spite of Constant Smoking," writes Miss Louise Pallen of New York City

"Like so many women in business today, I like to smoke. It gives me relaxation and comfort. But it is hard on the teeth-such a great factor in personal appearance. I know that I, personally, should hate to talk up close to someone whose teeth were yellow with nicotine stains and whose breath was strong

"Business associates of mine have been generous in their praise of my teeth, marveling that they remain so white in spite of constant smoking. And I quite frankly tell them that this condition is due only to my constant use of Pebeco. It keeps my teeth immaculate, my gums firm and healthy and my breath absolutely free from odor of tobacco.

New Orleans, La., March 19 .- [Spe etal.]-Carrying topweight of the field and the favorite in the betting, Marshal Ney was the winner of the Elisian Fields purse at Jefferson Park today. The big son of Chicle raced in front from start to finish, staved off two challenges during the running of the at the end to win by a length from Harry Payne Whitney's Agitator. Half a length farther back was Charmarten while Gold Bet and Hot Time completed the field.

It was the second consecutive victory of the meeting for Marshal Ney and in four starts here he has never been worse than second.

Jockey Floyd Halbert scored the first of two victories when he brought Clyde C. home in front in the curtain raiser, a six furlong dash for older Halbert's other winner was De Mar in the fifth race. Clyde C. paid $12.10 for a mutuel ticket and eated the heavily played favorite, Eager Play, by half a length.

The merchandising methods used with such remarkable success by the largest chain store systems of the country have been likewise successful in the development of the business of Sally Frocks, Inc. These methods are based on rapid turnover of inventory for cash, scientific merchandising, centralized management and the investment of earnings in additional stores.

By these means the original capital of $39,000 has grown to a point where 20 stores are operated in Middle Western cities with net annual sales of over $2,900, 000. It is expected that at least 10 more stores will be opened during 1929.

Reported sales for the first two months of 1929, show an increase of approximately 55% over those of the first two months of 1928, and for the first two weeks of March sales were reported to show similarly an increase of about 95%.

Common Stock (no par) Authorized 1,000,000 shares; to be issued. 610,448 shares

Mr. W. W. McFarland, President of the Company, summarizes the information relative to the Company and its Business: The Warner-Quinlan Company was incorporated in 1903 in Maine. The Company and its subsidiaries constitute a complete unit in the petroleum industry, including the production, transportation, refining and distributing of petroleum and petroleum products. The asphaltic products are marketed under the widely known trade-mark "Montezuma Brand." The gasoline and oils are marketed under the trade-mark

The Company has entered into an agreement to acquire 56.4% of the common stock of the Municipal Service Corporation. This corporation was organized in 1924 under the laws of the State of New York to consolidate subsidiary companies established from 1917 to 1924; and through these subsidiaries it does a wholesale and retail business in gasoline, lubricating oils, greases and kerosene.

Property: The Company's refinery at Warners, N. J., is complete and modern in every respect. Its location on New York Harbor permits of shipments by either rail or water. The plant has a daily crude oil capacity. of 12,000 barrels and with the enlargements in progress will have a daily capacity of 18,000 barrels. The Company through subsidiaries owns or operates bulk filling stations at Long Island City, N. Y., New Rochelle, N. Y., Inwood, L. I., and Secaucus, N. J., for the distribution of gasoline and controls through ownership, part ownership or lease 131 gasoline service stations in and around New York. The Company through subsidiaries owns, leases or has concessions for over 32,000 acres of land in the oil districts in Texas and Mexico. The developed properties are producing about 6,600 barrels of oil daily. The Company owns 163 steel tank cars of about 10,000 gallons capacity each.

The Municipal Service Corporation owns and operates 58 gasoline service stations in New York City and adjacent points in New York State. Purpose of Issue: The proceeds of the sale of these debentures and of 122,089 additional theres of common stock being offered to stockholders will provide funds to acquire the common stock interest of the Municipal Service Corporation, to refund the cost of extensive improvements to the refining and other marketing facilities of the Company and to increase its working capital. Assets: The consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 1928, adjusted to give effect to the financing described next above and to include at cost in Investments the stock interest to be acquired, shows net tangible assets, after deducting all liabilities other than these debentures, of over $3,500 for each $1,000 debenture. Of these net tangible assets $5,329,096 represents net current assets. These debentures will be followed by 610,448 shares of common stock. Dividends of $2.00 per share per annum are now being paid on the 488,359 shares of such stock now outstanding which are selling on the New York Stock Exchange at a price which represents an equity of over $17,000,000 junior to these debentures.

Applied to the shares to be presently outstanding, this price represents a junior equity of over $20,000,000. Earnings: For the year 1928, admittedly a poor year for the oil industry, the earnings of the Company and its subsidiaries, combined with 56.4% of the earnings of Municipal Service Corporation, available for interest and Federal taxes, after deducting reserves for depreciation and depletion, were $2,288,098 or over 5.4 times the annual interest requirement of these debentures.

For the 5 years, 1924 to 1928 inclusive, such earnings for the Company and its subsidiaries averaged $1,-488,826 per annum, and for Municipal Service Corporation such earnings for the 3 years 1926 to 1928 inclusive, averaged $391,094 per annum, which combined as above are equal to $1,879,921, or over 4.4 times the annual interest requirement on these debentures.

Indenture: These debentures in the opinion of counsel will be direct obligations of the Company and will be issued under an Indenture which will provide that the Company will not issue any secured obligations without securing ratably therewith the debentures of this issue then outstanding, except mortgages created or assumed as part of the purchase price on property hereafter acquired, and replacements thereof, and secured obligations of not more than one year maturity. Convertibility: The debentures will be convertible into common capital stock of the Company on the basis of 20 shares for each $1,000 debenture, which is equivalent to a price of $50 per share. The Indenture will contain provisions to protect this conversion privilege against dilution through the issuance of additional We offer these debentures, when, as, and if issued and received by us, subject to approval of our counsel, Messrs. The action of the New York curb market resulted from fear that the controversy between the Rockefeller interest and Robert W. Stewart, who was dismissed as a director, might lead to rescinding the stock dividend. The practical result, however, is that trad-ing continued yesterday in the old stock, which has technically ceased to exist, and there is no market for the new shares. Based on yesterday's price of around 90% for the old stock, the new stock should sell around 60, as also would the old stock "ex" the stock dividend.

5% Stadium Serial Gold Bonds DUE SERIALLY AS SHOWN BELOW

Interest payable semi-annually March 15 and September 15 at Johnson County Savings Bank, Iowa City, Trustee.
Coupon bonds in denominations of $1000 and $500, interchangeable, and in the case of 1944 maturity, $100. Bonds registerable as to principal only. Redeemable at 100 plus accrued interest on any interest payment date upon 30 days' notice in reverse order of maturity.

The issuance of these bonds has been authorized and approved by the Iowa State Board of Education and in opinion of counsel these bonds are free from Federal Income Tax.

Dr. P. E. Belling, Chairman of the Athletic Council and Director of the Division of Physical Education of the Uni-ATHLETIC COUNCIL: "The Athletic Council of the State University of Iowa was created December 21, 1908 (originally as the Board in Control of Athletics), by the Iowa State Board of Education for the promotion and control of intercollegiate athletics at the State University of Iowa at Iowa City. The Council has power under authority of the State Board of Education to receive and disburse funds received from intercollegiate athletics at the University of Iowa. By reason of the large profits thereby derived, the Council has made fixed improvements on the campus in excess of $650,000. This has been done without resorting to appropriations by the Legislature. The title to these improvements rests in the State of Iowa THE STADIUM: These bonds will be issued for the purpose of building and equipping a Stadium on land owned by the State of Iowa, known as Finkbine Field, immediately adjoining the Field House on the University campus. The entire project has been approved by the Iowa State Board of Education and authority granted therefor. When completed the Stadium will be one of the largest in the country and will seat 70,000 spectators. The structure will be built of reinforced concrete with brick walls and stone trim to match the Field House. Subject to regulations of the Athletic Council, owners of bonds of record will be entitled to purchase preferred seating space in the Stadium. SECURITY: This issue of bonds, authorized and approved by the Iowa State Board of Education, will be a direct obligation of the Athletic Council of the State University of Iowa, and the Trust Indenture will provide that the service of this loan shall constitute a first lien upon the net proceeds, received from athletic events, subject only to outstanding Field House bonds.

EARNINGS: For the past six years (1929 partly estimated) the gross receipts from athletic events approximated $1,500,000 with a stadium seating capacity of only 17,000. The new Stadium will eventually have a seating capacity of 70,000 and judging from experience at other State Universities, these receipts should be doubled as soon as the Stadium is completed. For the eight months ended February 28, 1929, net operating income was in excess of $145,000. In 1922, the Athletic Council issued and sold privately for the construction of the old Stadium, $81,700 Certificates; these Certificates, due in ten years, were entirely redeemed within three years from date of issue.

This Is One of a Series of Advertisements Resulting from the Investment Research and Analysis MADE BY THE STATISTICAL DEPARTMENT OF LAWRENCE STERN AND COMPANY IN CONNECTION WITH TEN TYPICAL INDIVIDUAL INVESTMENT PROBLEMS

"A Second Line of Defense"

HERE is an example of one of the many interesting problems that arise in the course of the day's business of the Statistical Department of a modern

A business man, most of whose resources were tied up in the business which he inherited, wished to make himself and his heirs absolutely secure against the possibility of reverses in his own business.

In order to accomplish this, he determined to set up a reserve of fixed interest bearing securities entirely independent of his business-in his own words, "A Second Line of Defense."

What type of securities should a man in such a position select for his reserve

Should he avoid the class of industries represented by his own business?

What degree of diversification should he seek?

Should the securities be selected from the standpoint of income and appreciation, or principally from the standpoint of security of principal?

The above questions and other problems faced by anyone in a similar position to that of this young man are discussed in an analysis prepared by our Statistical Department, together with specific recommendations as to the securities to be purchased.

Believing that others in a somewhat similar situation may be interested in the analysis and conclusions reached in this case, we have reproduced for distribution a copy of our report, and we shall be glad to send it to any interested investor upon request.

*Small Loans and Savings—Only!

Commercial banks like "big" accounts. There is economy in handling large units.

This State bank is not a commercial bank and does not handle "big" accounts - either loans or savings - for we are "small" account specialists.

> $50 to $5000 is the range of our small loans. Our last year's volume of $10,600,000 averaged $262 per loan.

> $5 to $5000 is the range of our savings accounts and 5% investment certificates. $280 per account is the average of our outstanding deposit balances.

The Chicago Morris Plan Bank is exclusively a "small loan and savings bank" doing a world of constructive good in aiding Chicago families to organize and order their financial problems.

When you think of "small loans," think of the scientific and proven method under which we make them. When you think of depositing surplus savings, remember that we pay 5% on investment certificates.

At present 92 stores are in operation in 86 cities, including a new store on State Street, Chicago, the largest of the chain, opened in February and already doing business at the rate of approximately $1,000,000 per annum.

Based on leases in hand and in prospect the indications are that the chain will be increased to about 110 stores in 1929. The merchandise consists chiefly of popular priced women's dresses, underwear and hosiery purchased by a central buying organization maintained in New York City.

The business is done solely for cash on a relatively small fixture investment per store and with a merchan-dise turnover usually as high as eight times per annum. The growth of the business is illustrated by the fact that sales, which started at $213,200 in 1916, increased to over $8,500,000 in 1928.

The company has never failed in any year since its The company has never falled in any year since its inception to show a satisfactory profit on sales. In the years 1924 to 1926 it changed its merchandising policy, concentrating on the introduction of dresses in place of waists, so that in 1926 its profits were smaller than in previous years. The change in merchandising methods has been amply justified by the earning record since that date.

The sales and net profits of the company and subsidiary for the years 1926, 1927 and 1928, after deducting all charges, including depreciation and Federal taxes at current rates, and after being adjusted to include in each year an amount ($35,390.66) equal to 5% interest per annum less taxes on the proceeds which the corporation will receive as a result of this financing, as certified by Messrs. S. D. Leidesdorf & Co., were as follows:

	Sales	Net Profits
1926	$5,319,122.57	$183,944.53
1927	6,011,859.87	276,495.91
1928	8,543,488.14	467,104.23

The average earnings, as stated for the last three years, were over 2.7 times, and in the year ended 1928 over 4 times the annual dividend requirements on preferred stock presently to be outstanding.

In the fiscal year ended December 31, 1928, the earnings as stated were at the rate of over $2.82 per share on the 125,000 shares of common stock to be presently out-cases up to March 1, 1929, were 47% ahead of the corresponding period of 1928.

ASSETS

The balance sheet as of December 31, 1928, after giving effect to the present financing, as certified by Messrs. S. D. Leidesdorf & Co., shows net tangible assets of $2,628,255 equal to over $150 for each share of preferred stock presenting. ently to be outstanding.

LAWYER WANTED Gentile over $5, preferably with some trial experience, who has earned over $6,000 per year, to assist counsel, in loop office, for several large industrial corporations. Good salary. Apply in own handwriting, telling experience in detail and age. Secretary Mellon Says: "Buy Bonds"

The advice of Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon to prudent investors to buy good bonds has attracted widespread attention. It confirms the judgment of financial observers throughout the nation.

Mr. Mellon gives as his reasons the comparative low prices and relative high yields of bonds, and the fact that it is easier to select a sound bond than a sound

H. O. Stone First Mortgage Bonds at present prices yield 6% to 61/4%—a higher rate than can be obtained, with safety, through buying many other classes of securities. Every issue of H. O. Stone Bonds, before it is offered to investors, has passed most rigid tests from the standpoint of safety and desirability.

The security is income-earning real estate in metropolitan centers where property values are rising, thus steadily increasing the bondholders' ample margin of safety. This is your opportunity to make sure of safety and 61/4% for eight or ten years.

Write, without obligation, for booklet, "What Makes H. O. Stone Bonds Safe," and our latest list of selected 6% and 61/4% bond offerings.

Authorized Capital: 1,250,000 Shares, No Par Value*

Bankers Trust Company, New York City The National Shawmat Bank of Boston

Globe Underwriters Exchange, Inc., has been organized under the laws of the State of New York by a group of insurance company officials who have long recognized the desirability of perpetuating the advantages of state or local company organizations, as well as the unusually attractive investment possibilities presented by the stocks of such companies.

The main purpose of the Company is to purchase large blocks of stock in insurance companies backed by strong local interests, without merging them into a single company or bringing them all under one underwriting management, but to continue the independent status of each local company or group of companies under its present underwriting management with the accompanying influence of its local directorate, thus assuring them control of the valuable preferred business which such companies secure. With assurance of ample financial backing (through the Company) to provide adequate reserves and surplus, these companies will be relieved of their present necessity (which is true of most local companies) of restricting their volume

To sum up, the purpose of the Company will bes

1. To effect a community interest between the Company and the existing financial and insurance management of each insurance company without absorbing or assuming the management of the company whose stock is purchased. Under this plan, the most valuable asset of the local company; namely, the preferred business which these interests really ecorps, will be preserved and the permanency of the company as

To enable each insurance company to extend its business to the full limits of its special local influence, with assurance that adequate reserves and surplus will be available to take care of such extension.

3. To bring about a reciprocal exchange between the insurance companies in which the Company is interested, of such business as is usually ceded to some large company or group, which may be primarily interested in the ultimate absorption of the local company rather than its continuance. 4. A further advantage of the Company will be in its ability to provide the associate companies with valuable service to their directors in investing their funds more advantageously than through purely local channels.

Constituent Companies:

Negotiations are being completed for acquiring control or substantial interest in certain well establi ord American companies and two German companies. Further in this country and abroad, are under active negotiation.

Menagement: Mr. Edwin G. Seibels, President of the South Carolina Insurance Company and Manager of the Cotton Fire & Marine Underwriters, will be President of Globe Underwriters Exchange, Inc., and Mr. Thomas B. Boss, President of the American Reserve Insurance Company, will be the

BUSINESS SESSIONS TODAY

Along the North Shore there is a Packard for/family in every 6

"THE North Shore" is known the country over as the most exclusive and fashionable suburban residence district of Chicago.

North Shore families are a distinguished and discerning class of buyers.

It is significant that along the entire North Shore, Packard is the predominant quality motor car. An analysis of Packard ownership, based on reliable figures, discloses that there is one Packard motor car for every six families residing in the North Shore suburbs. The figures follow:

TOWN	PACKARDS†	NATIVE WHITE FAMILIES††	RATIO
HIGHLAND PARK	174	1337	1 to 7.6
GLENCOE	153	875	1 to 5.7
WINNETKA	338	1389	1 to 4.1
KENILWORTH	91	206	1 to 2.2
WILMETTE	205	1799	1 to 8.7
EVANSTON	1103	7300	1 to 6.6
ENTIRE NORTH SHORE	2064	12906	1 to 6.25

†Actual count from vehicle registrations.

No greater tribute than this has been paid to any motor car in the fine vehicle field. Packard builds for a discriminating and appreciative clientele—and enjoys an ever-increasing patronage.

Packard now offers three complete lines of Straight-Eights. The Packard Standard Eight (reduced March 4th) is priced from $2275 to $2675—the Custom Eight from $3175 to $3850—and the Eight De Luxe from $4585 to $5985—at the factory. Individual custom cars are also available to order on the De Luxe chassis.

You can enjoy the prestige and distinction of Packard Eight ownership with the exact car that suits your needs in size, appointments and in price.

If you prefer to buy out of income, you will find the Packard Payment Plan most attractive. Many take possession of their new cars without any cash outlay, because the used car allowance equals or exceeds the down payment on the new car.

On the previous Saturday evening Lepean had been at a loose end. Wape and Prece were away for the week-end. Young Harris had a party in town. Firefly Is Guiding Scientists Toward Light Without Heat

New York, March 19 .- (P) Scientific steps necessary to develop a light which will burn indefinitely, without heat, feeding on its own ashes, were described at a meeting of the Amer ican institute here tonight.

"Living light," such as that from the firefly," said Dr. E. Newton Har vey of Princeton university, is the basis from which this new type of illumination for human use possibly may be developed.

Though the steps necessary for success are few, he said they are among the most difficult in research. In all the 40 known groups of animals and the two groups of plants that glow, the cause never is phosphorus, as popularly believed. It is something more difficult to imitate.

This "cold light," Dr. Harvey said, is a combination of water, oxygen, luciferin and an enzyme, while all four seem indispensable, luciferin appears as the principal ingredient. It is one of the proteins, which are nitrogenous substances that occur in profuse varieties in all living things. Enzymes are activating agencies, dynamos, small in proportions but of powerful effect.

When luciferin is exposed to oxygen, Dr. Harvey explained, the two combine in a process called oxidation, which produces light. The enzyme's part is to accelerate the acidation. is obscure, but the nature of lucifering

s better known,
"Chemically," Dr. Harvey said,
'luciferin probably is to be placed among the simplest members of the proteins, the peptones or the protesses. The question whether we shall ever be able to reproduce living light becomes the question whether we shall ever be able to synthesize proteins. Personally I think that will come in the future. We now synthesize fats When a firefly flashes, it oxidizes

The Peplum Again Scores in the Mode

BY LOLITA.

NEW YORK .- [Special Corresp ence.]-The Voice of Fashion is certainly being trained in the middle register. One refers to all these new elaborations of the fiaring hip line which are so impressive in the spring collections. Among the most insistent of these are the frilly double peplum which Lanvin in particular is stressing so fervently. She is doing it in printed taffeta dance frocks with spectacular results, and she has also essayed the same thing in a few monotone materials.

Mental and nervous stress affects why oldest sister was entertaining her beau, one evening and another sister and I were sent upstains to bed. We were ready to retire, but thought we would try to look down through the hole at my sister and her beau.
